Report on the Workshop on "English Communication Skills"

Duration: 20-30 September 2025

Venue: Seminar Hall, Janta College, Bakewar, Etawah

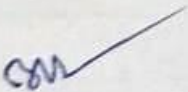

A three-day workshop on "English Communication Skills" was successfully organized from 28th to 30th September 2025 in the Seminar Hall of Janta College, Bakewar. The workshop aimed to enhance students' proficiency in English communication and to build their confidence in expressing themselves effectively in academic and professional settings.

The inaugural session was graced by Professor R. K. Tripathi, Principal of the college, who highlighted the importance of communication skills in personality development and career advancement. Professor A. K. Pandey, IQAC Coordinator, emphasized that fluency in English plays a vital role in improving employability and global competence.

The workshop was conducted under the convenorship of Professor Lalit Gupta, who welcomed the participants and outlined the objectives of the programme. The sessions were led by Dr. Ratna Shukla, the resource person, who conducted interactive exercises focusing on listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills. She also guided students through pronunciation drills, group discussions, and public speaking activities designed to improve articulation and confidence.

17 Students from various departments participated enthusiastically and showed remarkable improvement in their communication abilities by the end of the programme. Their feedback reflected a strong appreciation for the practical approach and supportive learning environment.

The workshop concluded with a valedictory session, during which the Principal distributed certificates to the participants and congratulated them on their active involvement.
